Holiday Festival!

Paintings by the Magic Paintbrush Project

Performance by the Parlor City Boy's Chorus (7pm)

Holiday Train Display by the Susquehanna Valley Railway Historical Society

Friday, December 4th, 2009, 6-9pm

The Southern Tier HealthLink NY invites the community to visit its offices in the former Lackawanna Train Station for the First Friday Art Walk on December 4th, from 6-9 p.m.

We are proud to welcome a short holiday concert by the Parlor City Boy's Chorus at 7pm, and a with an on-going art exhibit by the Magic Paintbrush Project and a holiday train display courtesy of the Susquehanna Valley Railway Historical Society.

Southern Tier HealthLink NY (STHL) is a non-profit organization that coordinates the local and regional efforts to improve health care delivery through the benefits of health care information technology exchange. STHL is proud to open its doors to the public for First Friday each month and invites you to stop by and visit its vintage train station home.
